

SPEAKER BIO:

Ferry brings over two decades of global food industry experience, with senior leadership roles at UNILEVER across Europa and Asia Pacific, leading corporate venture building for clients such as Nestlé, Danone, and Heineken at Startupbootcamp-Innoleaps. He has driven growth strategy and commercial scaling at plant-based pioneers, including V2Food, Meatless Farm and GREENFORCE.

As co-founder of Remagine Food, an operator-led food system investment platform that replaces passive capital with hands-on scale execution, Ferry now backs and builds foodtech ventures, turning them into institutional-grade businesses with lower risk and faster exits.

Ferry also serves as Impact Investment Advisor at EIT Food and startup advisor at Climate KIC.
